“ It's truly so empty now mama I wish I could be stronger for you I'm sorry Amanda Bear the only that keeps me moving forward knowing that you and I will be together soon my love I'm coming home to you. It's never going to get better it's gotten so lonely with my best friend I miss your little glasses that would fall to the tip of your nose while you slept. there are so many things we never got to say to one another. I talk to you everyday I sometimes will go to call your cell and it rings about 3-4 times before it hurts my when you baby died a part of me died with you..im so very lost baby and for you I keep placing one foot in front of the other.ive been the hospital for the past 9 days I'm really sick baby I'm so broken as a man by losing you the time we had with one another sits deep in my heart it has been a true honor to have you to share our lives together it's all I have just memories I'd much rather have you home all comfy next to me.just don't be upset if you see me sooner than you thought.we agreed that we would die together well holding your hand when you passed away that was a true honor to have. And I kept my promise to you I wasn't gonna let you die alone I have such good memories of us this has gotta be the hardest thing I've had to walk through my strength for us!!thank you for everything you taught me along with what I taught you.we are a perfect match..you are my girl baby I won't be moving on you are my final true love I could say how much I love you but that's no new news LOLi just miss you mama bear it hurts so bad sleep with your angels babe and the only angel I have or need is you. Til tomorrow my love we will talk gain sweet dreams
Love your man scottie

“ Oh Mandy, I would remember that pretty face anywhere. We played softball together for years starting around 13 years old or maybe even earlier. You and your dad would pick me up and we would go practice for hours. You were so funny and had the best laugh! You were always so beautiful! RIP pretty girl!

“ RIP Amanda... You have left behind a true gift your daughters. We always hoped you would get better but God had another plan. No more pain and sadness for you. Please watch over Jaden.

“ Oh my heart is breaking to read this sad news about Amanda. She was always so sweet and kind to my family and I. My Mother loved her. And my daughter was close to her daughter when they were little. We're so sorry for your loss Jaden. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family during this sad, sad time.

“ Gregg just called me while I was at lunch and told me that you had passed on. My heart hurts so much right now that I will not be seeing you on this side again. Mandy you have always been in my heart and on my mind. I will never forget all of the childhood memories that we had together. You and your family will always have a special place in my heart. Until I see your beautiful smile on the other side. xxooxx
