

Anton J. Hornstein

June 20, 1925 - November 24, 2018

Anton John Hornstein (Tony), 93, passed away peacefully at his home in Cheyenne November 24th, surrounded by his loving family.

Tony was born June 20th, 1925 in Rugby North Dakota to Bernard and Elizabeth Hornstein.

Tony was a wonderful husband, father, grand-father and great grand-father.

He is survived by four sons, Michael, Philip, Stephen and Matthew; three step-sons, Michael, Jim and Terry; three grandchildren, two great-grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his wife Betty, a daughter Stephanie, his parents and eleven brothers and sisters.

Tony will be cremated, and his remains will be buried in Cheyenne next to his wife Betty.

Comments

“ Tony was a wonderful person and friend. We always had such fun working together

Rest in peace

Ernie and Jan Croston

jan croston - November 27, 2018 at 06:15 PM

“ I will miss you Grandpa Tony and love you forever!!
Your Grandaughter-
Angela Hurst

Angie Hurst - November 26, 2018 at 08:46 PM

“ my grandpa Tony died. he was special. growing up, he always held a magical quality. i loved to be around him. to me, he looked like a young Jack Lemmon with a Jerry Lewis sense of humor. his laugh was infectious, his love for my grandma unparalleled, and his faith unwavering. always a pep in his step. he played a mean air trumpet..he used to tell me the same stupid joke every time I saw him, I'm sure he told a thousand people, but for me, it was our joke. he would lean in close, rub two fingers together and say, "know what that is?", it's the world's smallest violin playing just for you." and by the 3rd or 4th time he told me this, he would lean in, rubbing his fingers together and I would say, "I know grandpa, it's the world's smallest violin playing just for me." and he'd retort, "no, it's a piece of rubber, just fell out of my nose!" this silly exchange between us became something sacred to me and continued until the last time I saw him. I'll miss him so much, he was one in a billion. kiss grandma for me. she's been waiting impatiently, I'm sure, to be with you again. love you.

Maggie Mae Hurst - November 26, 2018 at 08:44 PM

“ Simply Elegant Spathiphyllum was purchased for the family of Anton J. Hornstein.

November 26, 2018 at 01:52 PM