“ Uncle Dan was a very sweet kind person who had so much laughter and loved to dance. He was very proud of his beautiful yard and flowers. Him and aunty loved to cook and made sure you'd stay and eat. He always had a wonderful smile and laugh he was very special and wont be forgotten.

“ My sincerest and deepest sympathies to the Alcon family. I got to know Mr. Alcon through his grandson, Gage who is my son Elias' friend. I had the opportunity to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Alcon on a few occasions. The times I remember were Mr. Alcon always had a smile on his face. Mr. Alcon was one of the sweetest people I have ever met. Rest in peace Mr. Alcon I know you're in heaven with the angles.

“ To my wonderful Alcon family members and all your loved ones, let me sincerely express my deepest condolences at this time of grief and pain at the great loss of Uncle Dan, patriarch, wise teacher, and best friend. I remember his Happy smiling eyes the most! His always shining Feliz Ojos, no wonder the happy eyes, since that is where he was born. Like his beloved sister, Emma, my dear madrecita, they both carried a simple overwhelming joy for life and love of family and community, that Alcon gift of humor, and unconditional loving hospitality that made being around them so much fun! It was always so nice whenever our extended families got together growing up. I pray that Nuestro Senor en el cielo and always present in the Sacred heart bless Uncle Dan with the treasure of Gus loving embrace welcoming him back home with a big fiesta cooked by his madrecita Raquel assisted by his sisters Emma and Edith and seated next to His padrecuto, Jose De Jesus! Muchas gracias Tio Dan for all the love and affection. We pray we will meet again as eternal souls free from the pain and suffering of this temporary troublesome world.
