“ Ron was a wonderful soul. He married my husband and I six years ago. When it came to the kiss, he drug it out for a long time before letting us kiss. So funny. He had a great smile and a warm heart. He will be missed by many.

“ As many of you have seen, Ron started me on a great Christmas tradition of going on a run early Christmas morning. I have had the pleasure of doing the same with my daughter, Megan. I tried to always take time while visiting in Cheyenne, to have a cup of coffee with Ron, share what was happening in our lives and catching up. Ron was “genuine.” Dawn, thank you for sharing your husband with me. We love and will miss Ron very much.

“ Ron told me once that if you became his friend, it was because you understood his quiet side. He was a good listener and always made me smile. R.I.P my friend. I will miss you!

“ I have so many memories of my dear brother. One in particular is from my 12th or 13th birthday. I was in Junior High. School had just started and Ron was away working on the Highway Crew. He brought me a beautiful mohair sweater and some expensive perfume. Mohair was all the rage and I remember he told me that I'd be the coolest girl in school with my pretty sweater. It was his way of letting me know I was growing up. It meant the world to me.

I'm sorry I won't get to come visit him this spring like I had been planning. But I'll go and see my sister-in-law who loves him so much. And my dearest niece and nephew and my great nephew.

I'll love you and miss you forever dear Ron. My Bro.
